Farris Runs for Re-Election

PUTNAM COUNTY, TN – November 17, 2017, Sheriff Eddie Farris announced his intention to seek a second term to be Putnam County Sheriff today. Following his announcement, Sheriff Farris made his way to the Election Commission Office to collect the formal documents that must be submitted to have his name placed into consideration for inclusion on the 2018 County Primary ballot.

Sheriff Farris expressed his deepest gratitude for the honor and a privilege to serve the residents of Putnam County as their Sheriff.

“I am humbled by the outpouring of support I have received from my family, friends and citizens of our great county during my term.”

He followed this by stating “... when I was elected by our citizens there was much work that needed to be done for our agency to become a premiere Sheriff’s Office. I have been committed to not only achieving, but surpassing, the goals and objectives that I had promised when I ran for office. Since our administration came into office, we have enhanced our professionalism, the quality of service and training on many levels. This includes certifying personnel, completing the accreditation process, standardizing equipment and resources, as well as expanding community involvement through programs like our Citizen’s Academy, Farm Watch and Senior Citizens Awareness Network (SCAN). We have made significant advances. I believe that (through a second term as your Sheriff) we will continue to expand and develop our agency and provide an exemplary level of service to our community that will surely place us as one of the elite Sheriff’s Offices in the State of Tennessee.”

November 17th is the first day that individuals seeking to run for the elected office of sheriff can receive the paperwork.
